

JAYPEE PUBLIC SCHOOL, NOIDA

STORY TELLING SESSION

(2017-2018)

We all have been telling and listening stories since childhood, stories are more than just a transfer of information. A story is an active way to communicate events, contextual information and develop connection between people. Stories ignite imagination, create bonds and teach valuable ethics and morals.

In this endeavor, a story telling session was organised in JPS, NOIDA by the resource person MR. SANJAY MUTTOO (A faculty of journalism at Kamla Nehru College, English news reader at ALL India Radio, Film maker of varied documentaries and produced AV capsules for agencies like UNITED NATION WORLD FOOD PROGRAMME), wherein the students participated enthusiastically, when he narrated a folk tale to the students of class III and IV. The session was too indulging that students participated in the activities with a lot of enthusiasm and zeal.
