

JPS SOCIOFEST 2020

Its technology married with liberal arts, married with the humanities, that yields us the results that make our heart sing.” -Steve Jobs

With the perfect amalgamation of Social Science with Technology and diverse Art forms JPS, Noida organised an Inter School Competition, “JPS SOCIO FEST 2020 on its virtual diaspora thereby creating an excellent platform to stimulate the spirit of curiosity, enquiry, innovation and creativity in a collaborative and cooperative environment. This platform not only provided the perfect blend of Arts and mainstream curriculum but also shared a foray of varied experiences which will nurture lifelong learning in the virtual mode.

Healthy competition can not only inspire but also stimulate students to value intellectual pursuits. Continuing with the tradition of theme based Inter-School Competition, an enthusiastic participation from more than 30 schools from Delhi-NCR, Haryana, Tamil Nadu and other parts of the country was observed.

The coveted event was inaugurated by Ms Manika Gaur, Director Education and Ms Anjali Malik, Principal, JPS, Noida. The guest of honour for the event was Ms Poonam Mittal, Founder Principal, Billabong High International School, Noida, Director, The Millennium School, Sector – 119, Noida, Chairperson, Lotus Krishna Vidya Bhawan under the aegis of the Lotus Learning Foundation and a recipient of the Entrepreneur of the Year Award, 2019.

In her ceremonial address the Principal, Ms. Anjali Malik, thanked the management and Ms. Poonam Mittal for gracing the occasion. She also thanked all the in charges and students of the participating schools to be part of this gala event during this new normal and coalescing for the successful accomplishment of the very essence of this fest.

With utmost sincerity and originality and set rules and regulation, the coveted event paved to its glorious journey on MS Teams with plethora of creative activities setting aside a benchmark for the competitions for the students of classes II to XII, such as Role Play, Spellathon, Grow Green Eco-Friendly Advertisement making, Director’s Cut, Sustain in Scratch, Kahoot-O-mania, Caricatura Politica, Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat- Folk Song, Kavi Sammelan, Artville- Poster Making, 3D Heritage Exotica, Mock Parliament and JPSMUNC’20- Virtual Model United Nations Conference.

In her virtual address Ms. Poonam Mittal congratulated the management, Principal and the entire team to their indelible efforts for making the event a grand success. She also applauded the institution for conducting the event on a historic day, a day etched in the World History as Hiroshima Peace Day, the culmination of Second World War and a stepping stone towards establishing peace and harmony through League of Nations, the forerunner of the United Nations. She also appreciated the participants for their overwhelming participation.

The results of all the competitions were declared judiciously. The winners and participants were awarded with e-certificates. The event culminated with the vote of thanks. The efforts of the team JPS SOCIOFEST 2020 were appreciated and applauded by all.